Press Release

More Young Stars Join 2012 Magic Team
Millburn, NJ—January 29th, 2012

More of New Jersey's talented young players have committed to the Millburn Magic in 2012, adding to an already impressive roster that features a number of D-I stars. Following squad announcements including Alexa Freguletti, Laura Kurash and Katy Fissel, another four women have chosen the Magic as their summer team, with three of them returning after playing in the past.

Cat Galgano, a regular starter with the Lafayette Leopards - D-I Patriot Conference Semifinalists - has proved to be a strong defender in past seasons both in the WPSL and NCAA. The Basking Ridge native played in all 17 college games this season as a sophomore and has two career game-winning goals to her name.

Julie Campbell, a graduate from the Morris United/STA Crush squad in 2010-11, will be returning to the Magic after an impressive first season with the Boston College Eagles. Playing four games despite being a freshman in one of the most competitive rosters in the country, Campbell went with the Eagles to the NCAA Tournament, before the squad eventually lost to #1 Stanford. Despite this, BC had a 12-6-3 record in 2011; Campbell is one of many exciting prospects in the north-east.

Also returning to the Magic is Allison Wacker. Hailing from Stockholm, the New Jersey player starred in all 20 games for Montclair State and claimed three goals and two assists as a sophomore forward. Montclair finished with a 13-5-2 record and went through to the NJAC Tournament Semifinals.

Finally, a new starter joins the Magic in the form of Jenn DiGioia, a sophomore attacking-midfielder with County College of Morris. The Succasunna local was the overall points leader for the team in 2011, scoring no fewer than 16 goals and getting three assists in just 11 games - five scores came in just one game.

More exciting player announcements are to come in the next few days - keep checking back with the Magic website!
